

Link to Article

Four new Hilton Garden Inns open across the southern U.S.

by Newsroom |

May 1, 2017 10:44am

Four new Hilton properties are now open to the public in North Carolina, Arizona and Texas. All four of the hotels are members of the Hilton Garden Inn brand, and are as follows:

- Hilton Garden Inn Statesville (N.C.) is located directly off Interstate I-77 just 35 miles north of Charlotte, N.C., near Lake Norman—the largest manmade lake in the state with 520 miles of shoreline. Guests will have access to food, family-friendly attractions and live entertainment at two of the state’s festivals: Carolina BalloonFest and the Statesville Pumpkin Festival.
- Hilton Garden Inn Phoenix/Tempe ASU Area is located in Tempe, close to Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport. The Tempe Marketplace is located within walking distance, providing access to more than 100 shops and restaurants. Also nearby is the Chicago Cubs training facility, golf courses and the Arizona State University campus. Tempe’s neighboring city, Phoenix, is included in Forbes Travel Guide’s “12 Top Destinations of 2017” for its year’s worth of sports events, a dining scene and more.
- Hilton Garden Inn San Antonio Airport South is a quick shuttle ride from the airport and designed for business, military and leisure travelers. The hotel offers access to historic and iconic area attractions including the San Antonio RiverWalk, The Alamo and SeaWorld San Antonio, as well as business and government destinations.
- Hilton Garden Inn San Marcos (Texas) is conveniently located at the midway point between Austin and San Antonio, near the bucolic San Marcos River and the renowned Schlitterbahn Water Park. Guests can shop at the San Marcos Outlets – the largest outlet shopping center in the U.S.—cool off at local breweries and music venues, or enjoy the great outdoors with kayaking, fishing and tubing.

“Each of these destinations offers unique local experiences that attract travelers, making them ideal locations for our upscale, affordable hotels,” John Greenleaf, global head, Hilton Garden Inn, said in a statement. “As our footprint grows in the U.S. and elsewhere, we strive to provide accommodations that enable guests to get the most out of the cities they are visiting while offering the global brand consistency they expect from any of our 700+ Hilton Garden Inn hotels.”

With properties in 33 countries and territories, Hilton Garden Inn continues to expand internationally this month as well, opening hotels in two cities in China and Russia. Hilton Garden Inn Shanghai Hongqiao is the brand’s first hotel in China’s largest city, meanwhile Hilton Garden Inn Volgograd is located in one of the most ancient cities of Russia, and will be a host for soccer’s largest global event in 2018.

Each property provides spacious and contemporary accommodations, on-site dining options for cooked-to-order breakfast and dinner and enhanced grab-and-go menu items, as well as a full-service bar. In addition, flexible meeting spaces, free Wi-Fi and numerous other amenities are available.