

Link to Article

Hilton Garden Inn Shangri-La now open as a first in Yunnan

By Juergen T Steinmetz

Hilton and Hilton Garden Inn today announced the opening of Hilton Garden Inn Shangri-La, the first Hilton and third internationally-branded hotel in Shangri-La, Yunnan Province in China.

“The opening of Hilton Garden Inn Shangri-La, our 13th Hilton Garden Inn in China, enriches Hilton’s portfolio, enabling us to address the growing demand in the city’s mid-market segment,” said Qian Jin, area president, operations, Greater China & Mongolia, Hilton. “We are committed to meeting the evolving needs of our guests, providing them with more choice through a pipeline of over 270 hotels.”

Located at Shangri-La’s city center, the Tibetan-styled Hilton Garden Inn Shangri-La is within seven kilometers of Diqing Shangri-La Airport and two kilometers of Shangri-La Coach Station. It is also close to the 1,300-year-old Dekezong ancient town and the Gedan Songzanglin Monastery, often considered as the most important Tibetan Buddhist temple in Yunnan.